TENNIS TOURNAMENT
NEARING FINALS

R. Badger Beats Thompson in Deciding Set—Brown Faces Neel in the Semi-Finals.

Each day brings the tennis players nearer the finals in the intermountain tournament, and the committee in charge expects the final games will be played in the different classes on Saturday and Monday. By beating Rainsford yesterday Brown reached the semi-finals, where he is matched with Sam Neel. This is expected to be one of the hardest games in singles, as both men are playing in great form.

One of the hardest games yesterday was the deciding set, held over from Tuesday, between R. Badger and Walcott Thompson. It was a duce set, the final score going 7-5 before Badger won out. McBroome, playing with Garnett in the doubles, received a telegram yesterday telling him that his mother, Mrs. McBroome, was seriously ill. McBroome and Garnett were scheduled to play Myers and Roberts for a place in the finals. The latter team gave a fine exhibition of sportsmanship by allowing the substitution of Raymond for McBroome and will meet the new team. According to the rules of the game, Myers and Roberts could have taken the game by default and reached the finals thereby. Under the change they will have to meet a strong team in Garnett and Raymond. The results of yesterday's games and today's schedule are as follows:

Results.

Myers and Roberts defeated Richards and Conrad, 7-5, 4-1.
R. Badger defeated W. Thompson, 9-7 (deciding set).
Brown defeated Rainsford, 6-3, 6-2.

SCHRECK READY FOR AL KAUFMAN

Big Bruisers Meet in San Francisco Tonight—Mike Will Go After Burns.

A letter received yesterday from Billy Hogan says Mike Schreck is in excellent condition for his fight with Al Kaufman, scheduled for this evening. Hogan says Schreck will enter the ring this evening weighing close to 187 pounds. Hogan comes out pretty strong and says: "Bet your money, Schreck wins by a knock-out before the twelfth round, which would indicate that Hogan must have considerable confidence in the Cincinnati Dutchman."

After saying Schreck will win, Hogan continues: "We will then chase Tommy Burns back to Detroit and try to force him to meet Schreck. He leaves for the east in a couple of days and the minute the fight is over it is Mike and me on the Pullman in hot pursuit. We will land this fellow Burns yet and make him fight."

Odds on Three Fights.

With the three big fights scheduled for San Francisco in the next couple of weeks, the sports are having a great time figuring out the winning combination. Tom Corbett has made a book on the three fights and is offering some pretty good odds.

The winning combination figures on paper to be Gans, Schreck and Thomas. The odds on this combination are given as 3 to 1. The native sons combination, made up of Britt, Kaufman and Thomas, is not so strong, being quoted at 7 to 1. The combination which is considered the weakest is made up of Britt, Kaufman and Ketchel. This is quoted at 9 to 1.

The complete table follows:

Gans-Kaufman-Thomas 3 to 1
Gans-Schreck-Ketchel 4 to 1
Britt-Kaufman-Thomas 7 to 1
Britt-Kaufman-Ketchel 7 to 1
Britt-Schreck-Ketchel 9 to 1
Britt-Schreck-Thomas 4 to 1
Britt-Schreck-Ketchel 6 to 1

Trinidad, Colo., Aug. 28.—Joe Galgano of Denver, the crack twirler for the Albuquerque Browns, has been signed by Frank G. Selce for the Pueblo Indians next year. Selce watched Galgano's work in the box yesterday and is convinced that he is one of the most promising pitchers in the west.

Denver fans will remember that early in the season Galgano, pitching for the Hanover team, defeated Selce's team handily at Broadway park, and almost scored a shut-out. In that game Hatch did the twirling for the Indians.

COURSING NEW IN SALT LAKE

Manager O. P. Smith Now Ready to Talk Business With Dog Owners.

The Intermountain Coursing club, which pulls off the big coursing meeting this fall, has opened an office at 117 South West Temple, and is now prepared to answer all questions that the local dog owners may care to ask about the meeting. Coursing is practically new in Salt Lake and it will take some time before the public fully realizes the importance of the event. Manager O. P. Smith gave out a few pointers yesterday explaining just what the meeting is and how it is conducted.

The national coursing meetings are held for each year. All bids for the events must be in the hands of the president of the American coursing board before the 1st of May.

The bids are opened as soon after the 1st of May as they can get a sufficient number of the officers together to take formal action. The meeting is then awarded to the place making the highest bid for the events, providing that the accommodations for the coursing men meet the requirements of the board.

Why Salt Lake Lands Meeting.

The Intermountain Coursing club of Salt Lake City bid $1,500 for both events, or $750 for the Futurity and $750 for the Waterloo. There were several other bids of $1,500 this year, but the events were awarded to Salt Lake on account of the superior accommodations that had been made for the dogs and the men.

The Waterloo, cup and purse—is the society event in coursing each year and is limited to sixty-four dogs, and costs $25 to enter your dog in this stake. The Burko challenge cup, which has been one of the main features of coursing for ten years, was won last year by Dave Carter's greyhound, Imp Patched Up, making three times that Carter's kennel had won the cup. It therefore became Mr. Carter's personal property. To replace that great feature in coursing, the Intermountain Club challenge cup of Salt Lake City. The cup will be a standing ad for Salt Lake City for the next few years before it becomes the property of any one kennel.

The Futurity was won last year by Consignor, owned by Blake & Smith of Butte, Mont., and the Waterloo was won by Mr. Blue, owned by C. J. Saunders of San Francisco.

The greatest burst of speed shown by any greyhound last year was shown by Colma, Cal. Roaked Asleep crossed the field, which was 1,400 feet long, in just 21 seconds.

COMPANY IS REORGANIZED

Public Service Concern Denies Selling Out to Harriman—New Men Behind Project.

The Salt Lake Public Service company of this city is now being reorganized and a new capital enlisted in the project, to establish a big heating, lighting and power plant on Third West street, from which to supply the commercial section of Salt Lake with electric power.

The members of the concern yesterday declared that it had been found necessary to reorganize the company, but that the plan to sell out to Harriman had not been abandoned.

PRINCE FED BY THE PRESIDENT

Wilhelm of Sweden Makes a Trip to Oyster Bay to Meet Roosevelt.

New York, Aug. 29.—A luncheon with President Roosevelt, an informal dinner at the Hotel Astor and a view of Broadway under its white lights were the events of the first day's visit to New York of Prince Wilhelm of Sweden. Incidental to almost all of these events was a hearty greeting from hundreds of Swedes who gathered everywhere to welcome to their adopted country the grandson of Marshal Bernadotte. Fresh from a round of entertainments at Newport and several Massachusetts cities, Prince Wilhelm reached New York by rail early today, accompanied by the Swedish minister to the United States, Herman Lagergren, and Captain Kiercher, the prince's aide. At the Grand Central station the party was met by Acting Swedish Consul Magnus Clarholm, who extended the formal welcome of the Swedish residents of New York. At the Hotel Astor the prince was taken in charge by Huntington Wilson, third assistant secretary of the state, who had been detailed by the president to escort the royal visitor to Oyster Bay. A large portion of the people of Oyster Bay were at the station when the prince arrived, and the little Long Island village was gay with flags, prominent among them being the colors of Sweden. The party was driven immediately to Sagamore Hill, where the president was awaiting them.

The luncheon served was an elaborate one. Besides Prince Wilhelm the guests were Captain Linberg of the Swedish cruiser Flygla, on which the prince voyaged to America; Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou, John R. Jackson, minister to Persia, Lieut. R. C. Bulmer, United States navy, commander of the Mayflower; the president and Mrs. Bulmer; and Major General J. Franklin Bell, chief of staff of the United States army. The luncheon, while elaborate, was entirely informal, and the president and the prince chatted on current topics until they settled down to a discussion of the training of the naval officers, a subject in which both are particularly interested.

The party left Sagamore Hill in time to catch a train for New York shortly before 4 o'clock. The prince expressed great delight at having had an opportunity to see the president and spoke in enthusiastic terms of him. Friday a formal banquet will be tendered the prince at the Hotel Astor, and Saturday will be spent in sightseeing in and about New York.

JOTTINGS FROM MURRAY.

Miss Merl Miller was pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening at her home on Seventh and South streets, when a number of her friends, each laden with a bountiful supply of dainties, presented themselves at the door, coming in on their unsuspecting victim unaware. A delightful program was carried out and some interesting selections were rendered. During the evening refreshments were served. The wee sma' hours of the morning were approached before the jolly crowd of merry-makers departed for their several homes.

A new stage line has been established between Murray and Sandy, stops being made at Bingham Junction and Highland Park.

Cards are out announcing the engagement of William McLeary and Miss Hazel White.

BIG POW WOW TONIGHT.

The "American" party contingent in the First precinct will have a grand blowout this evening in Liberty park. Speeches by various "reformers" music by a reform band and a general reform program will be carried out to the limit.

The precinct is represented in the council by three noted "reformers," Crabtree, L. D. Martin and Thomas Hobday. The meeting, it is understood, is being engineered by Mr. Crabtree. He is the man whose reform methods were carried to such an extent that he told Parley L. Williams of the Utah Light & Railway company that "other important matters must be considered" before his committee would consider their application for a franchise to extend their lines.

It is understood that very recently Crabtree has experienced a change of heart, perhaps because he has either seen the light or the "other important matters" have been considered, and will vote for the franchise minus the $32,000 consideration demanded by his partner, Councilman T. R. Black.

WOMAN FOUND UNCONSCIOUS

Bruised About Head and Husband Is Held by Police Pending Investigation.

What is believed by the police to be an attempted suicide was brought to light early this morning when Bella Smith was found unconscious in her room at the Clayton rooming house, a bottle of poison filled with chloroform was found near the woman when the police entered the room. George Smith, the husband of the woman, was taken into custody by the police pending an investigation of the case. Several bruises about the head and face of the woman caused the police to think that she had been struck by some one before attempting to commit suicide. When she recovered consciousness the woman declared that she was subject to fainting spells and denied that she had tried to commit suicide.
